

BEDE'S WORLD

The Museum of Early Medieval Northumbria at Jarrow

Our trip to Bede's World in Jarrow was fantastic. We visited a Saxon Farm where we saw the animals and buildings that St Bede would have known. We visited the chapel of the church where St Bede himself would have worshipped. While we were there we discovered what life as a monk would have been like and we were able to dress up as monks ourselves.

