

WORLD BOOK DAY

The children all made a super effort to dress up as their favourite book character. They were all able to stand up and give a short speak about their character and why it was their favourite.

