

Working together...

As part of our topic on castles we have been learning about directions. We worked in team to agree directions and programme the robot to travel around various obstacles.

...and applying our learning.

As part of our topic on castles we learnt about 3D shapes and the various properties. We used our new knowledge to help us build replica towers and castles.

