

Busy day at Bowes Museum.

Our class trip this term was at Bowes Museum linked to our topic about Toys and Games. We learnt about toys from the past before we sketched them. After lunch we all made a peg doll which we designed first. It was a brilliant day. When we got back we wrote letters to thank the people who came with us and helped to make it a super day as well as Amy at Bowes Museum.

