

As part of our 'Book Week' we visited Crown Street Library.

We were all allowed to choose a book to borrow - it was sooooo difficult because there was sooooo much choice!

We had a great time just chilling and enjoying our books.

We also had the opportunity to be artists for the day by joining in with the library's bench project.

We have left a legacy for the town because our benches will be on display in the library for a long time.

