

In Geography, we read 'Rosie's Walk' by Pat Hutchins, about a chicken who walked around a farmyard followed by a crafty fox. We laughed when we saw all the sneaky ways the crafty fox tried to catch Rosie. We drew maps to show the route Rosie took around the farmyard. Our maps were wonderful. We wrote sentences with capital letters, finger spaces and full stops about where Rosie went.

