

Zoos, Ethical or unethical?

Year 4 have been considering if zoos should remain open or should close down for good during their English lessons this term. They have had some brilliant discussions as a class and really enjoyed finding out about more about why zoos are important from a zoo keeper who worked with giraffes at Chester Zoo!

The children were so lucky to compare this to Mr Ramsay's farm and the animals that live there. We were able to discuss all the pros and cons of this and had an exciting visit from
