

Our Post Office Trip

Reception had a great time visiting the post office. The lady showed us how to weigh parcels and where they are kept until the post man collects them. We bought some stamps and each wrote a letter home.

When we got back to school we created a post office role play area and had lots of fun writing letters and post cards, wrapping and weighing parcels, designing our own stamps and making greetings cards.

