

Water pumps

We had a visit from Reverend Sheilagh, who told us all about her fundraising for water pumps. She has been collecting 20 pence pieces and doing all sorts of activities to raise money to buy as many pumps as possible and send them to countries which are not fortunate enough to have access to clean running water.

