

Greek Day

The staff from the Oriental Museum in Durham brought lots of Greek artefacts for us to examine and attempt to figure out what they were and what they were used for.

They taught us how to write our names using the Greek alphabet and then we made ostras—Greek voting discs to help us to learn about the Greek voting system and the origins of democracy.

We acted out a very famous ancient Greek play .....

