

The Owl and the Pussycat

The Owl and the Pussycat went to sea
In a beautiful pea green boat.
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped up in a five pound note.

The Owl looked up to the stars above
And sang to a small guitar,
"O lovely Pussy! O Pussy my love,
What a beautiful Pussy you are,
You are,
You are!
What a beautiful Pussy you are!"

Pussy said to the Owl, "You elegant fowl!
How charmingly sweet you sing!
O let us be married! Too long we have tarried:
But what shall we do for a ring?"

As part of our celebrations for National Poetry Day, Y2 learnt by heart the poems On The Ning Nang Nong, a resistant poem by Spike Milligan, and The Owl and the Pussycat, an archaic poem by Edward Lear.

As we approach Christmas, we will be learning the archaic poem The Night Before Christmas.

On the Ning Nang Nong
